New Bridge Will Break Traffic Bottleneck Soon

OLD AND NEW Low Level bridges are shown here in striking pattern as a locomotive puffs up a billow of smoke and steam into the spring air. The locomotive is just approaching the old span on the left before pulling across a string of cars. New span on the right is being rushed to completion and should be ready for traffic this spring. It will do much to relieve present bottleneck for traffic to the South side.

50-Cent Ad Cleans Out This House

One Edmonton house is not so overcrowded today and one Edmonton woman has money in her pocket.

And it's all because the look advance of the Edmonton Bulletin Swap week.

Recently she placed a 50-cent ad in the Swap column in which she offered a fur coat, radio, rug, record player, tricycle, couch, carpet sweeper and coat set. The ad was run seven days.

The next day she phoned to say the rug, tricycle, couch and carpet sweeper were gone.

On the third day the remaining items were sold or swapped and the ad was cancelled altogether.

"This is just another example of the sure-fire results from Bulletin classified advertising."

Cement Sure For Paving

There will be no shortage of cement for paving and other city construction projects contemplated for this year, according to officials of the Canadian Cement Co., Ltd., at a special meeting of city council, told aldermen he had received assurance from officials of the Canadian Cement Co., Ltd., that "all reasonable cement requirements for city projects would be met this year."

He intimated also that price of cement had been increased by five cents a sack.

Factor in the easing of the cement supply to the city is the placing of 10 special railway cars at the disposal of Crown Paving and Construction Co.

These cars will permit continuous bulk shipment of cement from the Exshaw plant to Edmonton.

Dairy Men Worry As Butter Prices Plunge

Second-grade butter has gone down five cents a pound retail in Edmonton, as a result of a similar wholesale price cut.

Price now is 64 cents a pound, seven cents under first quality butter.

A drop of eight cents in third grade butter brings the price to 56 cents. The price of first grade butter is unchanged, but an official of Woodland Dairy said he expects a price drop in three weeks or a month.

MARGARINE BLAMED

Reason for the decrease is the decline in sales in eastern Canada and western U.S. D. Williams, president of the Edmonton Dairy Producers' Association, said the decline in sales is "about to crack any kind of Alberta's second and third grade butter."

Wales, would be a "lemon for our city council."

The people of Cardiff show town pride and unity," he continued. "I wish the Edmonton Town Planning committee would take a Welsh tour."

Prof. Jones pictured Edmonton as "a bundle of houses and dirty streets."

"We have got to have town planning," he said.

Turmoil Reigns at Dinner As City Planning Rapped

Sparks flew at St. David's Society annual banquet last night when member J. D. Williams jumped to his feet during a toast and charged "politicians."

"I protest the use of St. David's society as a political organ," he said.

The outburst arose as a result of Professor J. D. Jones' suggestion that the heavily of Cardiff, Prof. Jones' unasked for criticism of Edmonton, refused to sit down. "St. David's society political statements," he said.

"Several members, in sympathy with Mr. Williams, left the meeting."

Mr. Williams submitted only one point, that plan show all three. "I take back everything I said."

SWEETHEARTS 50 YEARS AGO ARE MARRIED

LIVERPOOL, March 2.—(CP)—Honey-mooners John and Marion Russell, sweethearts 50 years ago, sailed today on the liner Empress of Canada to settle on a farm at Lacombe, Alberta.

Russell, 76, met his former girl friend, Marion, 61, while he was on a vacation in 1947 in Lunenburg, Scotland. His home before he emigrated was in Canada 26 years ago.

But Russell said he was "too shy to say anything."

Later he proposed from Lacombe and they were married in Edinburgh in January.

Living Index Out Tomorrow

OTTAWA, March 2.—(CP)—Canadians will learn tomorrow whether price trends are pointing up or down.

At 3 p.m., EST, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics will issue its monthly report on the official cost-of-living index, covering the period from Jan. 3 to Feb. 1.

The report, statisticians feel, will show whether the living-cost basketometer actually is on the way down, as recent reports would indicate, or whether it is holding steady.

The last report, issued Feb. 4 and covering the December period, showed the index at 128.4—the highest point in history—after a year-long period of seven-tenths of a point the preceding month.

U.S. Demands Russ Leave

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(AP)—The United States government, in a note to Russia, today gave Gen. Ziaia D. Clay full support in his demand that the Soviet government mission be withdrawn from the zone of Germany.

The American note, made public by the state department, said Moscow had made "no progress" against the Soviet mission and that the mission was "a serious threat to the peace of Europe."

Molotov's report was delivered to the American embassy in Moscow Feb. 24.

The American note was to be delivered to Molotov at Moscow today.

North Plague Said Halted

WINNIPEG, Man., March 2.—(CP)—A fireman medical team, armed with 600 pounds of equipment, was sent today to the north to solve the mystery of a death-dealing plague in a village 1,000 miles to the north.

The five doctors, many of them specialists, were sent to the village of Chesterfield Inlet by a Royal Canadian Air Force Dakota plane.

Before they arrived, the resident doctor of the Inlet, reduced the Health Department at Ottawa that the plague has been brought under control. It had killed 11 persons and afflicted 25.

Mr. Russell said he was "too shy to say anything."

Later he proposed from Lacombe and they were married in Edinburgh in January.

Warm Weather Likely Friday

Another day of exceptionally high temperatures stretched Edmonton's spring-like weather into a full week today. The weatherman says it will continue.

For the seventh consecutive day, the mercury climbed to above freezing here, and yesterday reached a high of 47 above. Mercurial weather, while the night will only be 15 above.

Lowest temperature in Edmonton during the night was 23 above, high in several places, while in Yukon the mercury also remained high. Lowest at St. John's was 13 above.

East of Edmonton, however, temperatures were in the teens last night. Vermilion reported a low of three above and Prince Albert reported four below.

CATTLE THINK IT'S SPRING

ESTHER, March 3.—There are more signs of spring and sunnier weather has brought out hundreds of head of cattle into the stubble fields to graze after being fed in open corrals and sheds for the past three months. Reserves of feed are still good, but it has taken a large amount of hay to get the cattle through the cold weather. A local stock raiser, O. B. Heinman reports that his cattle are beginning to shed their hair, and this he says, is sure sign of spring just around the corner.

Snow Plow Opens Esther Highway

Mrs. Roosevelt Given Souvenir By Authors

Souvenir folder of Edmonton was presented to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt by the Canadian Authors' Association, Edmonton branch yesterday.

Presentation was made at the home of Mr. Paul C. Seidemann, American consul, where Mrs. Roosevelt stayed while in Edmonton.

Discussing the possibilities of a woman president of the United States, Mrs. Roosevelt said:

"Until there is equality of sex, race and human standards and the person chosen is accepted because of special abilities which qualify him or her for that position, only then can a woman hope to be president."

Although she believes that American women have not yet acquired equal status with men, she claimed their status was higher than that of women in Canada.

Authors have a position in establishing international good will, Mrs. Roosevelt said. "Authors have double opportunities, and therefore have double responsibilities, which should come out in their writings."

Half Million Dollar Plant Officially Opened by NW

Completion of a half a million dollar expansion and improvement program by North West Brewing Company Limited was realized Wednesday with the official opening of the firm's new bottling plant. Hundreds of Edmontonians were guests of Bennett and White, contractors of the new building, at the special opening ceremonies. Sub-contractors, their friends, and all who assisted in the construction of the new plant attended the affair as well as a number of leading Edmonton businessmen and officials.

More than a quarter of a million dollars was the cost of construction of the new plant, which is also equipped with another $125,000 in equipment.

A two storey brick and steel building, 90 by 150 feet, the new plant in addition to housing the bottling department, also provides large storage space for supplies and the majority of the second floor of the premises is used as recreation headquarters for employees.

This part of the building features a large lunch room, lounge room, lockers, showers and other bath-room facilities for the employees.

General contractors for the plant were Bennett and White, who are most proud of their job. G. W. "Bill" Epton, superintendent of construction said the plant took approximately 18 months to complete due to slow delivery of materials but that it was one of the finest buildings of its kind in the west.

In addition to the modern bottling department, the plant features a number of other new installations and improvements.

City Navy Veteran Is New Brewmaster

Brewmaster at the North West Brewing Company Limited is a navy veteran. He's Walter Spensholt, who worked his way through the ranks to a commission and who was decorated for meritorious service during his war career.

Walter, as he is called by all who know him, received his early brewing training at a west coast plant prior to his enlisting in the service. On demobilization, he returned to the west coast brewery and after a short spell, decided to further his vocational training by attending a brewmaster's course at Chicago and Milwaukee, which he financed through his war service gratuities.

On graduation he returned to the west coast brewery where he remained for several months before accepting his present post with North West Brewing Company Limited.

Although he is one of the youngest brewmasters in Canada, he is considered one of the best in the industry.

His academic standing during his course at American brewmaster schools won him wide acclaim.

Farm Income Up 41 Pct. in 1948

Compares With 2 Per Cent Drop In United States

OTTAWA, March 3.—(CP)—Canadian farm income jumped 41 per cent in 1948 compared to 1947, the Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday while American farm income was dropping two per cent.

The bureau, in a review of current economic conditions published in its monthly report, had this to say:

"The steady increase in the industrialization of the country would tend, other things being equal, to reduce the portion of national income earned by farm operators from farm production."

However, during the last few years a combination of rising volume of production and price increases has offset this trend and has resulted in both greater and steadier incomes.

"The net income of farm operators from farm production, including wheat participation contributions, was $2,386,000,000 or 134 per cent of the national income in 1948 against $1,686,000,000 or 115 per cent in 1947 and $1,608,000,000 or 112 per cent in 1946. The rate of increase in farm income in 1948 over 1947 was 41 per cent."

In the same year prices generally increased by 14 per cent. The index of farm prices of agricultural products for December was estimated at 254.8 for December, 1948, with 252.1 for November and the index of the 1935-39 average equalling 100.

"This rise in the index reversed the downward trend under which had fallen the three consecutive months following a new high mark of 259 in August, 1948. The 1948 monthly average was 244, over 40 points above the 1947 average."

The review noted that Agricultural Secretary Bennett recently reported that U.S. farm income for 1948 was an estimated $1,600,000,000 or two per cent below 1947. The reduction in farm income reported in 1948 by the U.S. Department of Agriculture "expressed the opinion that the peak of farm prosperity is probably past."

OTTAWA, March 3.—(CP)—The Canadian John A. Macdonald Company, in letters received by striking employees, asked more than $100 of them yesterday to return to work to allow negotiation of a collective agreement.

The workers, seeking an increase of 10 cents an hour have been on strike since Feb. 17 and their walk-out represented a strike of some 1,000 workers in the eastern branch of the company.

The strike has been declared illegal by the provincial government because the syndicate of asbestos workers failed to take their grievances before an arbitration board before striking.

Throughout the asbestos area the situation was quiet yesterday.

Board Will Soon Hear Income-Tax Appeals

OTTAWA, March 3.—(CP)—Canada's first appeal board for income-tax payers, expected to start its hearings in a couple of weeks or so, gave the public a few tips yesterday about how to approach it.

The two-man body is establishing its own constitution in a wartime temporary building formerly occupied by the army board. It also will hold hearings "at all the principal centres" across the country.

The form of notice of appeal was first published in the official Canada Gazette Feb. 22 and under the same may be ready to be heard by

HE KNEW SPOT FOR SAFETY

NEWPORT NEWS, N.S., Mar. 3.—(CP)—City police looked for more than two years for Thomas Hill, who escaped from the city farm while serving six months for drunkenness.

They finally located him this week. Hill was holding down a job as a guard at the North Carolina State prison.

His arrest, they have 36 days after Feb. 22 to appeal.

Notice of appeal against assessment or assessment should be sent to the Minister of Revenue, not to the Minister. The Minister forwards the notice and relevant documents.

The board said its number of appeals outside Ottawa will be determined by the number of appeals in each area. Due notice will be given to applicants and "the number of expense and convenience to the taxpayer" will be considered in deciding where he should go to be heard.

The board consists of Mr. Justice Roy T. Graham of the Saskatchewan Court of King's Bench, former assistant clerk of the Commons, Patsy Hume of Montreal and W. S. Fisher, former legal head of the income-tax department.

Pawprints Tell Tales Of Puppy's Misdeeds

DEAR TAWASI:—What would you say if I told you I had a very long dog in the world, and that every time he bounces something he leaves a mark.

It is the same with us. No people have fingerprints alike either, and every time you say or do something you leave a mark or footprint on it too.

Our dog friend did not remember all the time he had growled and barked at strangers just for fun, or when he had jumped up on to the sofa at home and pretended to be underneath when his owner ordered him to get off. Now he knows that when a stranger barks a bark he says "I know who that is—the daily dog sense the way who is always barking." And they would be talking about him.

So when you are doing a job—whether it is putting in the store for number, or studying a lesson—let it through peacefully and as thoroughly that you don't need to do it over again. That will leave your mark, a success mark, and people will say, "that must be Johnny's work because it is so well done."

As we watched the dog turn into his gate, we saw him give us all a quick wag, and we knew that he was needing to leave nothing but good marks of his self as something he did from love on.

Oh, another thing. Don't forget to look in Saturday's paper in an little Indian's new name. He can hardly wait to have it.

—Sincerely,

—Clean Page

on the TOWN

By J. D.

I was proud as a peacock yesterday. I felt like a nine-year-old school kid who had the only apple for the teacher.

Reason? For this reason: my attendance at a press conference with Edmonton's distinguished visitor, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

There were seven news and radio reporters at the conference but I figured I had an inside track.

In April of 1941 I wrote Mrs. Roosevelt a letter, inviting her and the President to visit Edmonton and the Alaska Highway.

I told her Edmonton would be honored indeed to welcome such distinguished guests.

I didn't really think I would receive an answer but I did. About 10 days later I was handed an envelope bearing a Washington postmark. I nearly tumbled off my chair when I opened it and saw these words in glittering gilt: "The White House, Washington."

The letter was neatly typed and signed in ink "Eleanor Roosevelt."

To my "brash" invitation to visit here, Mrs. Roosevelt replied: "It would be a pleasure to visit with you and the President."

Yesterday I proudly showed my treasure to Mr. Roosevelt. He remembered writing the letter and thought it "very interesting" that I had kept it six years in a frame.

For the first time I felt like the school boy with the only apple for teacher in the whole class.

Mrs. Roosevelt impressed the press conference as being intelligent, kindly and sincere. She wore a plain grey dress and a white collar and cuffs.

She said nothing about one blunder in the Andy Stevie trial. That was when Mr. Andy said something about "Rosie."

"Rosie" and others at the Potemkin conference. President Roosevelt said the Potemkin conference.

She thinks we get along with the Russians who we demonstrate we have something better to give the peoples of the world than they have.

Soviet Russia already respects our material and military might. Now democracy must take spiritual and moral leadership.

No woman will become president of the United States until great qualities of leadership are universally recognized in dependency of sex, the one-time First Lady of the U.S.A. said.

Politically, Mrs. Roosevelt is still a good Democrat but has not been active in U.S. politics since taking over her nonpartisan duties with the United Nations.

She chuckled when she became tangled up in a sentence, saying: "You have a vast country, enormously rich, but your population is not thickly populated."

A proud young man as Canadian Pacific Airlines stewardess, Rosemary Pile of Edmonton, she helped out Mayor J. Harry Adams, Jr. last night by administering a bouquet of roses to Mrs. Roosevelt.
